

WILLIAMS NEW ORLEANS

Mildred C. Williams, 78, a native of Garyville and a resident of New Orleans, died Nov. 2. There are no immediate survivors. Services are today at 10 a.m. at St. John Institutional Missionary Baptist Church, New Orleans, with interment at Providence Memorial Park. Visitation starts at 9 a.m.

Unknown source

Mildred C. Williams, a retired machine operator in the garment industry, died Monday at Metropolitan Hospice. She was 78. Mrs. Williams was born in Garyville and lived in New Orleans. She was a member of St. John Institutional Missionary Baptist Church and its Usher Board No. 2, Baptist Training Union, Benevolent Auxiliary and Children's Hour. There are no immediate survivors. A funeral will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. at St. John Institutional Missionary Baptist Church, 2538 Jackson Ave. Visitation will begin Saturday at 9 a.m. Burial will be in Providence Memorial Park. Gertrude Geddes Willis Funeral Home is handling arrangements.

Times-Picayune, The (New Orleans, LA) - Friday, November 6, 1998

Contributed by Jane Edson