

William Thomas "Truman" Caire
March 7, 1958 - January 27, 2017.

William T. "Truman" Caire passed away suddenly at the age of 58. He was born in New Orleans, LA and raised in Edgard, LA, by his loving parents, Sharey Ethridge Caire and the late Joseph G. Caire, Sr. Truman was a devoted and loving husband to his wife, the late Linda McCormick Caire.

They lived a joyful and full life together for 20 wonderful years. During their marriage, they lived in New Orleans, St. Louis and Annapolis, and were blessed with many dear friends and numerous young people who loved them like an uncle and aunt.

Truman (aka Bill) enjoyed a love of life centered around good food, music, friends and family. He will be missed by all who knew him as a genuine and true friend, a True Man.

He is survived by his mother, Sharey Caire; four sisters, Sharey Powell (David), Virginia Baranovic (Michael), Ruth Chapin (Mark), and Linda Hargrove (Brian); two brothers, Randle Caire (Debbie), and Joseph Caire Jr (Eva); and many nieces and nephews.

Unknown source