St. Peter Catholic Church Reserve, Louisiana

Funeral Register Number 1

July 12, 1864 - December 22, 1886

Indexed and submitted by Mrs. Shirley C. Terrio

From the inception of St. Peter Church Parish in April, 1864, until about the end of of 1867, funeral services were held in St. Peter's while burials were in St. John the Baptist Cemetery, Edgard, Louisiana, and in a few cases elsewhere. After that time, the registers do not state that buriels were elsewhere, so it can be presumed that buriels were in the St. Peter Church Cemetery.

The funeral indices show variations in the spelling of names. No attempt was made to correct any spelling. If a name was written a certain way, the translator did not use the present-day spelling. Therefore, the interpretation of a name has to be done by the researchers themselves.

St. Peter Catholic Church records through 1900 are now being held at the Archives of the Archdiocese of New Orleans. Documents from 1900 on are still held in the parish and requests should still be addressed to the Church Parish.
